

AWANA Scholarships Still Available!

At Southwestern College, we see the goal of AWANA – that students come to know, love and serve Jesus Christ as Lord – as absolutely in tune with what we believe and practice here at Southwestern. From early childhood, AWANA helps give parents and leaders the tools and the confidence to shepherd children into forming a true Biblical worldview and living it out.

Young people who grow up with AWANA are well prepared for success at Southwestern College, the only regionally accredited four-year college in Arizona that is also accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education.*

We want to help those young people take the next step into becoming productive adult members of society who carry His message forward wherever they go. So we offer two scholarships available exclusively to students who come to us from AWANA.

These scholarships are available to high school graduates, home schooled students, transfers from other institutions and even current students at Southwestern. Both scholarships are stackable, which means they can be combined with any other scholarships, and they are renewable year to year, depending on satisfactory academic progress.

The AWANA Scholarship Citation Award is valued at $3,000 each year.

The AWANA Scholarship Meritorious Award is for $2,000 each year.

Applicants must include a verification letter from AWANA headquarters with their application to Southwestern College.
